COLT STARTING WORKSHOP 2011

Paul Williamson (41) started riding aged 10 and quickly rose up through the ranks as one of the best thoroughbred riders today.

Paul's non-aggressive approach and ability to "get the job done" makes him one of the Youtube's most popular trainers with more than 3,200 subscribers.

Paul picked up on a natural occurrence that happens in all horses, and turned it into one of the most valuable tools a horseperson can have in their toolbox.

He calls it The TAP and has incorporated this tool into his colt starting system. This training tool can be matched by no-one in regards to starting time (under 20mins).
